Equipping and Empowering Families and Students Through Christ

Wednesday, November 13th 2 hour late start

Busses will follow their normal routes, just 2 hours later than usual.

Chapel will be held at 10:10 due to the late start.

Book Fair and Craft Night is TUESDAY!!!

The Book Fair opens at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall and the craft part of the evening begins at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. There will be a large selection of books to choose from as well as posters, pencils, etc.

Several of our parents have been planning some great projects for you to make with your child(ren). Come for some creative fun and a time to connect with the other St. James families.

In Our Prayers: This upcoming week please include these in your prayers:

- Thank you, Jesus, for taking the punishment we deserved and giving us forgiveness instead.
- For protection for our servicemen and women who serve in our military.
- Thank you for all veterans who have given so much for our nation.
- Thank you for our friends at St. James.

Picture Retakes are scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 14.

There are order forms in the school office. If you plan to order online, the code is EVTVC87V8. Be sure to send the original package back on the 14th with your child(ren).

Card Sales: Do you like to have get well, sympathy, or birthday cards on hand? Almost all these cards include Scripture verses so you can share your faith when you use the cards. You can order cards from the catalogs that are available in both the church and school offices. Orders are due on Nov. 15.

Thank you to the PTL for coordinating the meal for our teachers yesterday during Parent Teacher Conference time. It is greatly appreciated! Thanks to all the parents who brought in food for the meal.

We will have our annual Thanksgiving Meal on Tuesday, Nov. 26 in the cafeteria. Parents, grandparents, special friends are welcome to join us. We ask that you let us know by Nov. 19 if you plan to come so that we can prepare food accordingly.

The Gala Committee will be meeting at the Waverly Café at 7:30 a.m. on Nov. 16 for their next planning session.

Crayola ColorCycle program coming soon. Turn in used markers - any brand- also highlighters and dry erase markers - to be recycled by Crayola.

School Closings: With this week's colder weather we are reminded that winter is not far away, so here are a couple of things to keep in mind when we have bad weather:

- * The Public School makes all decisions regarding late starts and cancellations. (We use their bussing.)
- * Once a decision is made, they contact WCCO, TV Channel 4 and 830 AM Radio. (WCCO is usually contacted before we are.)
- * St. James Lutheran School will utilize the School Messenger Phone System.
- * Please watch for HLWW District 2687, public. (Don't get confused with "St. James". - This listing is for the town of St. James, not our school.)
- * Please make sure your students wear warm winter clothing to school. If a bus does have trouble on the road it can get pretty chilly!

An additional note- warm coats, boots, hats, and gloves are required for outside recess and break time.

Scrip order forms are due Nov. 19. The cards are for a wide variety of businesses and restaurants. You can purchase cards for yourself to use as you do your own Christmas shopping at those businesses, or give the card as a gift.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK: Nolan Erickson joined our 1st grade class this year. He was born on July 5th in Glencoe. His parents are Kyle and Lisa Erickson, and siblings, Wesley, Mason, Jax, Grace and Ella. His favorite person in the Bible is God and in school he likes math best. Nolan likes to eat corn on the cob and play football, Frisbee and legos in his free time. Ninjago is his favorite TV sho and Aladdin is his favorite movie. When he grows up, Nolan wants to be a policeman.

THANK YOU...to everyone who attended and helped out at the LWML Chicken Dinner last Sunday. Your support helps make it possible for the group to reach its goal of sending Christmas gifts to missions whose work is sharing the Gospel message both here and abroad. A BIG thank you to the students of St. James who set up the tables and chairs and helped bus tables at the dinner. May God bless all of you who by your participation have helped bring the saving message of Jesus to those who have never heard it.

HLWW Fall Musical

The drama department of HLWW is presenting "Back to the 80s" on November 15 and 16 at 7:30 p.m. and on November 17 at 2:30 p.m.

Quarterly Statements were sent home with students this past week. If you have any questions, please contact the school office 320-543-2630.
